Completely refurbished throughout, this Georgian period townhouse has a stylish and relaxed vibe

Positioned in a highly sought after residential street is this attractive two (three) bedroom Georgian townhouse which has undergone a complete yet sensitive renovation by its landlord. Accommodation includes versatile living space which flows seamlessly from the Entrance Hall through an open-plan Dining Room to a chic country Kitchen and Garden beyond. Of particular note is the elegant Sitting Room with its period reeded working fireplace, polished parquet wood floors, tastefully matched curtains, blinds and light fittings throughout, sumptuously appointed bathroom suite and light and airy bedrooms with high ceilings. Additionally there is a ground floor Cloakroom and useful storage.

The property has been thoroughly refurbished behind the scenes, with completely modernised electric and plumbing systems – lighting has played an important role in the overall design of the space and carefully curated approach to design and fittings from light switches to paired back decorating that showcases original period features.

A secluded courtyard garden is laid out in a manageable format; largely paved with raised beds and enclosed completely by a mix of fencing and an attractive brick and flint wall. Residents' permit parking is available.

60 Guildhall Street is conveniently located within the historic Cathedral town of Bury St. Edmunds and is situated in arguably one of the most desirable residential enclaves and conservation areas (the medieval Norman Grid formed by intersecting Churchgate, Guildhall & Westgate streets). The bars, restaurants and independent boutique shops of Abbeygate Street and the Market Square are nearby. Excellent A14 access is afforded by Westgate Street via Southgate Street. Refer to our Situation page to discover more.

DISCOVER SUFFOLK

Bury St. Edmunds is an extremely attractive and prosperous market town located in the heart of Suffolk. The A14 gives fast access to the east coast ports, Ipswich, Cambridge, the Midlands and to Stansted and Cambridge Airports, as well as London via the M11. The Arc is the town's latest, modern retail outlet and is a popular shopping destination. All major food stores are well-represented, including Waitrose. There is a twice-weekly open-market in addition to a variety of eateries, attractions and places to stay. The Millennium Tower that crowns St. Edmundsbury Cathedral is the landmark. There is plenty on offer to keep families entertained. The Apex Arts Centre is a state-of-the-art live entertainment venue which hosts exhibitions and events. Watch a great performance at the Theatre Royal – the only surviving Regency playhouse in England. Other amenities include a range of health clubs, swimming pools and leisure facilities. Bury St. Edmunds has a real sense of community and is a truly friendly town. Ideally placed to offer a fantastic lifestyle to visiting forces based at RAF Lakenheath and RAF Mildenhall.

Horseracing is at neighbouring Newmarket, a number of interesting golf courses nearby, sailing and water sports on the River Orwell and an outstanding 50 mile (80 km) heritage coastline and an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty encompassing Aldeburgh and Southwold.
